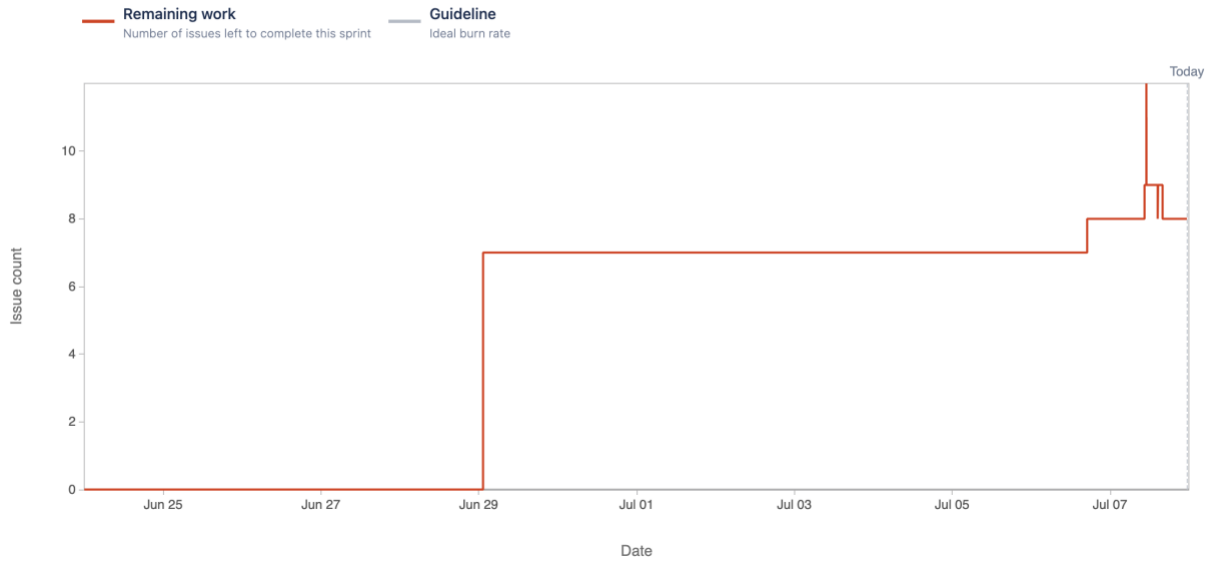
Burndown Chart

Sprint goal - Our goal for this sprint is to fix up the functionalities of users registering, posting, discovering posts, and profile management. We also hope to improve our frontend UI for existing pages



Most activity on our chart is shown to be done towards the end of the sprint. This is simply because we like to work on our own individual tasks and handle all merge conflicts and issues together on a call, which usually happens near the demo date.